

Tandy J. Hamilton

Certifications, Education and Professional Experience

CERTIFICATION AREAS

NYS Permanent Certificate as School District Administrator

NYS Permanent Certification in Teaching:

English to Speakers of Other Languages K-12 and Spanish 7-12

EDUCATION

BUFFALO STATE COLLEGE Buffalo, New York

Educational Leadership and Facilitation Post-Master's Certificate Program, May 2003

UNIVERSITY OF BUFFALO Buffalo, New York

Master of Education in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages, June 1995

WELLS COLLEGE Aurora, New York

Bachelor of Arts in Western European Studies: Emphasis in Spain, May 1992

Semester at the University of Seville, Spain from January - May 1990

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Assistant Principal, City Honors School (Grades 5-12), August 2009 – Present

Assistant Principal, Community School #53 (Grades PK-8), August 2007 – August 2009

Supervisor of Secondary Education in Office of School Performance, July 2004 – August 2007

Program Coordinator, Dr. Antonia Pantoja Community School #18, August 2002 – July 2004

Teacher of English as a Second Language (ESL)

- Frank A. Sedita Academy #38, September 1997 – August 2002
- P.S. #18, July 1996 – June 1997
- Community Education Teacher ESL, part-time, July 1995 – January 1996
  - Sweet Home and Williamsville Community Education Programs

Ms. Hamilton tries to stay “current” on educational and educational administration best practices through her membership in the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development (ASCD). Membership includes daily “SmartBrief” emails, a themed monthly magazine, Educational Leadership, and 4-6 books per year on contemporary education issues. She recommends membership to anyone seeking a teacher leadership position. Visit ascd.org for more information on this excellent resource.